Coaching High-Performers The Challenge of Change

You Can Fulfill Your Team's Greatest Potential Starting Today

A majority of organizations employ work teams as the cornerstone to getting work done efficiently along with producing innovative ideas and gaining a competitive edge in the marketplace.

What's Holding You Back?

You've been working hard and you're doing well in your company. But there is something holding you back, something standing between you and the next level of achievement.

At its essence, improvement involves change. However, when it comes to change, desire and motivation aren't enough.

Bring Out the Best in You and Your Team

Our goal is to provide you "road-tested" practices and ideas that help close the gap between what you intend to do and what you are actually able to bring about. If you lead, manage, supervise, consult, train, coach, or teach—this engaging talk is for you.

The breakthrough work of Todd Troxel has legitimized the practice of skill development coaching at the highest level of sport. Troxel has trained many high-performing athletes, among them Diana Taurasi, Sue Bird, Brittney Griner, and Chinese legend Yao Ming.

Todd is a student of the game of basketball. Just as importantly he's a student of people. His ability to connect and build positive relationships helps him nurture superior results from high-performers. Todd's track record for getting elite performers to the next level of greatness demonstrates why he's considered the preeminent trainer in basketball.
